How I have found my best friend

I once have heard a proverb, which says: "A journey is best measured in friends rather than miles". Well, it is right about me and my best friend. Let me tell you the story of our friendship.

Two years ago I went<sup>50</sup> to Spain. When I've arrived, I found out about a fantastic<sup>60</sup> tour, in which you could visit 3 most popular<sup>70</sup> cities of Spain. I've booked it. On the next day I was waiting for the bus. I saw a girl<sup>80</sup> of my age who was waiting for it to. We started<sup>100</sup> talking and she said that her name is Alice<sup>110</sup>. We were from the one city. We were discussing our<sup>120</sup> tour and making predictions what we are going to visit when my phone rang. Our tour guide said that our tour was called off. We were so angry and disappointed.<sup>150</sup> We decided to go to our rooms.

Next morning I woke up because of someone knocking my door. When I opened<sup>170</sup> it I saw Alice she was so excited. "I've solved our problem" - she said. She invited me to make up a tour by ourselves. Unfortunately, we could visit only<sup>200</sup> one city but it sounded like a marvelous adventure. I packed my bag rapidly and we started our trip.<sup>210</sup>

We decided to visit Barcelona because it was the closest city to our hotel. Firstly, we visited the biggest adventure park in the world called Port Aventura. Secondly, we tried local<sup>250</sup> dishes in different restaurants. Finally, we visited the city centre and
