A wind orb

Many years ago a girl named Rosaria was travelling around the world. She wanted to see all places in the world. She had seen many places and her dream seemed to become true. But Rosaria didn't feel satisfied. Something was missing. SP 30

She was staying in a city named Mond ~~where she met~~ after visiting Mond she wanted to go to Lisha plains to see wind orb. There flowers were spinning slightly when the wind was blowing. She wanted to keep one. When she was ~~staying~~ ^{staying} in Mond, Barbara, a girl whom Rosaria met recently, asked: "Can I go with you? I need to find a herb which grows only in Lisha plains to heal my mother." PT 30

Rosaria agreed. At first she felt uncomfortable because she had never travelled with a companion. When she realised that travelling together was fun. When they arrived they couldn't find what they needed. Barbara ~~was~~ ^{was} very upset. Rosaria forgot about wind orb, all she wanted was to help Barbara. After a week of looking for the herb Rosaria found it. 30

It matched Barbara's description perfectly. But Rosaria realised that this flower was a wind orb. But she still gave it to Barbara. While travelling ~~with~~ ^{with} her Rosaria realised that making friends and helping them was the thing she loved. A journey is best measured in friends rather than miles, said a proverb Rosaria once heard. 30

Barbara healed her mother and was very grateful. She asked Rosaria to stay but she left. She promised to come back again. Rosaria needed to travel the world with friends she was going to make. Rosaria felt that there was a long road ahead but she knew that it will be her happiest journey. 30 30 30

A wind tree

Many years ago a girl named Rosaria was travelling around the world. She wanted to see all places in the world. She had seen many places and her dream seemed to become true. But Rosaria didn't feel interested, something was missing.

She was staying in a city named Mond ~~when she~~ after visiting Mond she wanted to go to Lisha plains to see wind trees there. There flowers were swaying slightly when the wind was blowing. She wanted to keep one. When she was ~~looking~~ ^{at} Barbara a girl whom Rosaria met recently, asked: - Can I go with you? I need to find a herb which grows only in Lisha plains to heal my mother.

Rosaria agreed. At first she felt uncomfortable because she had never travelled with a companion. Then she realised that travelling together was fun. When they arrived they couldn't find what they needed. Barbara ~~was~~ ^{was} ~~very~~ upset. Rosaria forgot about wind trees, all she wanted was to help Barbara. After a week of looking for the herb Rosaria found it.

It matched Barbara's description perfectly. But Rosaria realised that this flower was a wind tree. But she will give it to Barbara. While travelling north Rosaria realised that making friends and helping them was the thing she loved. A journey is best measured in friends rather than miles, said a proverb Rosaria once heard.

Barbara healed her mother and was very grateful. She asked Rosaria to stay but she left. She promised to come back again. Rosaria needed to travel the world with friends she was going to make. Rosaria felt that there was a long road ahead but she knew that it will be her happiest journey.
