A stranger in need

It was a warm Friday afternoon when Mike decided to go ~~for a hike~~ ^{hiking}. He ~~always~~ loved adventuring, being ~~outdoors~~ ^{alone} with nature. He would often ride many miles on his bike until he was in a place far from ^{humanity}. ~~For that reason~~. He particularly fancied deserts and canyons.

When preparing for his ^{journey}, Mike set a goal for himself. He was going to ~~break his own record~~ and ride 100 miles, then hike another 20. He packed his ~~tools~~ ^{climbing} and climbing equipments, his food and water supply. As he ^{was} ~~packed~~ ^{ing} his ~~camera~~ ^{camera}, Mike smiled thinking of all the ~~amazing~~ ^{amazing} photos he ^{was} going to take.

The next day Mike took off on his bike, listening to music and ~~savoring the moment~~. He had already passed the parts most ~~popular~~ ^{popular} with tourists and was approaching a more deserted area. Suddenly, he heard somebody cry for help. "Someone else will rescue him", - Mike thought to himself. ~~However, as he rode further~~ ^{he had a goal he was determined to achieve}. However, as he rode further, the screams became louder and it ~~was~~ ^{became} apparent that no one was there to help besides Mike. He stopped and followed the voice. It lead him to a ~~young~~ ^{young} man, hanging from ^{the} edge of a canyon. "Help! My rope broke!", - he shouted. Without hesitation Mike grabbed the man and started pulling. The unlucky tourist ~~grabbed onto the strap of Mike's camera~~ ^{grabbed onto the} backpack, and ~~accidentally~~ ^{accidentally} sent it falling down the canyon. "Thank you! You saved my life! I'm sorry for your stuff!"; - he said, after Mike managed to pull him out.

At that moment, when all his plans ~~were~~ ^{seemed} ruined, Mike remembered a ~~saying~~ ^{Proverb}: "A journey is best measured in friends rather than miles". He thought, maybe it ^{was} a chance to try something new. "I ~~was~~ ^{was} just about to check out that underground lake. You want to join me?" - he said, smiling ^{at} the stranger he just saved.
