READING

Time: 25 minutes

Task 1. For each question, choose the correct answer. The people below are all looking for a museum to visit in London. Look at the descriptions of eight London museums. Decide which museum would be the most suitable for the people below.

1. Amara and Nira love modern art and looking at interesting buildings. They don't really like traditional art and architecture. They would prefer to have lunch before they look around the museum.
2. Greg is very interested in history and especially anything to do with historical battles. Both his great grandfather and grandfather were in the army during World War I and II.
3. Michael is excited by anything connected to planets and stars and space exploration. He'd like to visit a museum where there are things to do rather than just pictures and objects to look at.
4. Annabel likes to know the latest fashions and would like to be a clothes designer when she finishes college. She is always looking for ideas for her designs and she is a very good photographer, too.
5. Daniel is very interested in animals and the environment. He particularly enjoys museums that have more unusual things to look at. He loves reading books about explorers who have discovered new places full of strange animals and plants.

London Museums

A. Victoria and Albert Museum

Highlights include the finest collection of Italian sculptures outside Italy. The Fashion galleries run from eighteenth-century clothing right up to modern designer clothes. The Architecture gallery has videos, models, plans and descriptions of various styles and the famous Photography collection holds over 500,000 images.

B. The British Museum

Since it opened in 1759 - the first ever national museum for the public - the British Museum has been displaying global objects discovered by British explorers, including the Rosetta Stone and the Parthenon sculptures. The museum has over eight million objects in its collection, 50,000 of which are on display. It also has a really good café if you want somewhere different to go for lunch.

C. Tate Modern

The Tate Modern is one of London's - and the world's - most famous art galleries. It has an international collection of modern artworks that few can beat, plus it is a historic piece of architecture worth visiting in its own right. On the top floor there is a restaurant with wonderful views of The River Thames.

D. The Natural History Museum

It is home to around 80 million plants, animals and rocks. This exciting museum, which is also a world-class research institution, is full of natural wonders. Here, you will come face-to-face with moving model dinosaurs, a man-sized model of an unborn baby, a dodo, a giant sequoia tree, an earthquake machine, glow-in-the-dark crystals and much more.

E. Science Museum

An incredible, hands-on museum that has seven floors of entertaining and educational exhibits, including a virtual reality space experience, old Nokia mobiles and a sixteenth-century fake arm. This is where you can explore the incredible Information Age exhibition - which is where the Queen sent her first tweet, signed Elizabeth R.

F. London Transport Museum

It's home to old buses, early examples of tube trains, maps, transport signs and uniforms, as well as fantastic posters, artworks and photographs showing London from 1860 to today. Once you've bought an entry ticket, you can visit anytime for an entire year.

G. Imperial War Museum

A powerful museum shining a light on people's experiences of war from the First World War to today. A few minutes' walk from Waterloo rail station, IWM is made up of many permanent galleries, such as the amazing Curiosities of War exhibit, and temporary displays, exploring recent battles and attacks.

H. National Gallery

An excellent and completely free-to-enter artistic institution in the heart of Trafalgar Square. Founded in 1824, The National Gallery is home to more than 2,000 works from artists such as Da Vinci, Van Gogh, Rembrandt, Michelangelo, Turner, Picasso, Matisse and Cezanne. You can even have a go at sketching in the galleries with the support of a gallery art teacher.

Task 2. Five sentences have been removed from the text below. For each question, choose the correct answer. There are three extra sentences which you do not need to use.

Achieving your dreams

A psychologist reaching out to teens around the world

6. _____. To you, I say, you are more able and amazing than you know. Follow your dream no matter how ambitious it may appear to others. It is the dreamers who bring positive change to the world. So if somebody doesn't support or understand your dream, just smile and think to yourself, "Don't believe me? Just watch!"

Some people insist that the 'rules of success' are very black and white. 7. _____. Following 'the rules' may not be the best way to get you where you want to go. Your dream can be a very simple one, or a very complicated one. The truth is the world needs your dream to develop, so take a look at what I think are the truly important things to consider when following your dream.

You can try to be perfect, but one person's idea of what is perfect is always different from another's. In fact, I believe it is our weaknesses that make us special. You can be the most brilliant, talented person in the world, but if you lack the enthusiasm, passion and excitement for what you do, then it doesn't matter how good you are. You may not be the best at what you do, but if you have great enthusiasm, you will reach your goal. 8. _____. Enthusiasm creates dreams; talent does not.

When you have a big dream for your life, people like to tell you that you aren't being realistic. 9. _____. I think that when it comes to having a dream, being realistic and sensible aren't helpful. These are simply limitations that we have placed upon ourselves. When we experience a challenge, it is not a problem; it is part of the journey itself. Otherwise, it would not be there. Every step you take is one step closer to your dream becoming a reality. The important ingredient for realising your dream is hope. 10. _____. It can change the world.

- A. On the other hand, others who are more talented may not.
- B. You should never try to do anything that is difficult.
- C. Hope is belief - belief in yourself and belief in the power of possibility.
- D. Many of you may be afraid to do what you really love.
- E. I believe that you should always obey the rules.
- F. Well, I say that you do not need to know the details of how your dream will happen.
- G. It's very important that you listen to this advice.
- H. I disagree; I believe there is a HUGE grey area.
