Gr A New library service P

Introduction

The library at our school is about to be expanded. However, the students still have have trouble with finding the books they need. I am writing this proposal to find a solution to this problem.

Suggestions

Gr The library should make a list of all <sup>the</sup> books available to the students. This can be done in a form of small tablets which will be placed in the library. <sup>the</sup> This tablets will contain a description of all <sup>the</sup> books that can be found in the library. This way our students will be able to search for a book and see its <sup>the</sup> short description, a short information about an <sup>the</sup> author, a rating of the book and if the book is available at the moment or not.

To my knowledge, the school will need to buy six of these tablets and place them on the tables near the bookshelves. A professional programmer should download the information about the books on the tablets.

Benefits

I believe that this idea has more benefits than drawbacks. The students will feel much more comfortable when they search for books. Finding a book will be less time-consuming, and the school will be sure that none of the books are lost.

Conclusion

I hope that you will consider my proposal to be useful for the school and the students.
