Proposal of expansion of library function range

Introduction

The goal of this proposal is to suggest a possible improvement in both functionality and number of attendants of our school library by inclusion of an additional service in the range of functions of this facility.

Description and justification

The proposal is to dedicate a part of the library to the copying and printing station. The idea of this service comes from the inconvenience of handing in printed writing tasks such as essays and reports as absence of printing facility in school and the fact that majority of the students do not have a printer at home play an important role in overcoming of the tasks.

Practical implementation

The realization of the project will require a purchase of the new equipment (approximately two or three sets of scanner and printer machines) and supply of blank sheets of paper. However, I believe that exact details are under committee's competence.

Beneficial factor

As I wrote earlier, provision of this service will solve one of the most time-consuming problems of writing tasks and also will increase attendance score of the library.

Conclusion

To sum up, I would like to highlight that realization of this proposal will ~~considerably increase~~ be beneficial for both students and school authorities and will not require anything besides some purchases. I hope that this suggestion will be taken into account during the expansion planning.

Proposal of expansion of library function range

Introduction

The goal of this proposal (is to) to the planning committee is to suggest a possible improvement in both functionality and number of attendants of our school library by inclusion of an additional service in the range of functions of this facility.

Description and justification

The proposal is to dedicate a part of the library to the copying and printing station. The idea of this service comes from the inconvenience of handing in printed writing tasks such as essays and reports as absence of printing facility in school and the fact that majority of the students do not have a printer at home play (an) important role in overcomplication of the tasks.

Practical implementation

The realization of the project will require a purchase of ~~(the)~~ the new equipment (approximately two or three sets of scanner and printer machines) and supply of blank sheets of paper. However, I believe that exact details are under committee's competence.

Beneficial factor

As I wrote earlier, provision of this service will solve one of the most time-consuming problems of writing tasks and also will increase attendance score of the library.

Conclusion

To sum up, I would like to highlight that realisation of this proposal will ~~(considerably increase)~~ be beneficial ^{real} (both) for both students and school authorities and will not require anything besides some purchases. I hope that this suggestion will be taken into account during the expansion planning.
