PROPOSAL TO PROVIDE NEW SERVICE IN THE LIBRARY

Introduction

This proposal is intended to provide a list of suggestions for the library about its possible new service and explain why it can be beneficial for the school and the students. It also suggests key points to follow during the realization.

Main features of the new service

One possible adjustment to the library existing service is organising competitions for students. The Library is supposed to offer different types of events but the most appreciable one is "The Best Young Writer". The competition might include testing the students' knowledge of famous books and creating their own stories during the competition which time is limited.

The resources needed

To make the project successful, the library should ask the school authorities to include these competitions in the students' timetable. Moreover, the library should find experts to create and check the tasks. It is also important to buy prizes for the winners and provide students with bottles of water and notebooks during the competitions.

Benefits

Firstly, the library and the school will have a chance to identify talented students who can perform in other competitions. This will make the school famous in the region. Secondly, students will have an opportunity to show their abilities and get an award. It will help them develop their talent.
