Task 1

Read the text and questions below. For each question, mark the letter next to the correct answer on your answer sheet.

If you would like to go on holiday with your family, and make it enjoyable for everybody, then there is just the place for you. I recently went with a group of friends to stay at the Greenland Holiday Village, which is open from May until October.

Built in the centre of a forest, Greenland is a great place to stay whatever the weather. Its main attraction for families is the indoor World of Water, where young and old can have fun in the different pools. Some of these, however, are for the serious swimmers only.

For sporty people, the Country Club offers tennis squash and badminton. If you children are too young to join in these sports, there are activity clubs. Greenland is a good place for families as it is traffic-free, you explore on foot or by bike. Some people complained that this was inconvenient, but I was pleased to be out in the fresh air. For evening entertainment, there are shows and cinemas.

Accommodation is in a variety of apartments of different sizes. These have up to four bedrooms, a kitchen and a bathroom, as well as a dining area. Before going, I thought the apartments might not be big enough for all of us, but I was pleasantly surprised- it was not too crowded at all!

I'll definitely go back to Greenland next year. Why don't you give it a try? Visit their website for further information.

Task 2.

Read the text. Six sentences are removed from the text. Choose from the sentences A-G the one which fits each gap (1-6). There is one extra sentence which you don't need to use.

FREERUNNERS...DON'T LET ANYTHING STAND IN THEIR WAY.

If you've watched an action film in the last ten years, you'll have seen scenes in which people jump from roof to roof, leap over walls and do amazing stunts while trying to get away from an enemy, using their bodies with great skill, they overcome all obstacles in their way. They jump over brick walls, roll across roofs and always land on their feet. 1____ Some people say «parkour», others say «freerunning». But hang on a minute, these are the same, aren't they? According to the experts, they are not.

Parkour came first and freerunning developed from it. 2____ In parkour, getting from point A to point B in the most efficient way possible is the most important thing. Freerunning, on the other hand, is about creating a journey, that involves acrobatics and other tricks. For example, freerunners like doing somersaults and performing gymnastic moves. Some of the original parkour followers look down on freerunning, which, in their opinion, is more about trying to attract attention and showing off. «Pure» parkour concentrates on the individual and his or her ability to overcome obstacles, it does not involve groups, competitions or exhibitions. 3____ Both activities have one thing in common, though, they turn the city environment into a playground or a gym. Skills that were once only seen inside the four walls of a gym are now often performed on the street. Today there is even an academy, the Tempest Freerunning Academy in California, which teaches the skills needed in safe surroundings. They have brought the outside environment into the gym so there are the same kind of obstacles as on the street, but with soft floors. 4____ The coaches at the academy say that by learning how to overcome obstacles in your environment, you will also learn, how to get over the stresses of every day life, it sounds easy, doesn't it?

It's not the simple, though, freerunning needs a lot of skill, both physical and mental strength, excellent balance and the determination not to give up. Running, jumping, climbing and swinging so that it appears to be one unbroken movement takes a lot of practice.

If you would rather watch them to participate, there are many organised events.

5__In 2012 in the Red Bull Art of Motion freerunning event was a great success. It took place in one of the most beautiful venues imaginable: the Greek island of Santorini. The event attracted large number of spectators, both local and tourists. Suddenly, the traditional white roofs were alive with freerunners. Crowds held their breath, as the freerunners took off from a whitewashed roof to land on a building several metres below, used the curved roofs as slides and did somersaults against the blue and white background of this famous island. 6___Each new place offers a new challenge to free runners, a challenge to push themselves beyond their limits. Freerunning or parkour, whatever name you give it, it's certainly exciting!

A The athletes said it was the perfect place to show their skills.

B We have all seen these in films or advertisements, but do we know what it is called?

C In fact, serious parkour fans do not approve of its use in entertainment of any kind.

D The judges of the competition were experienced in the sport.

E If you have wondered what freerunning is like, this is the chance to find out.

F Today they are totally different.

G Freerunners travel all over the world to take part in them.

Task 1.

Read the text below and choose the correct word, A, B, C or D, for each space.

THE BEST WAY TO COMMUNICATE.

How many people do you communicate with in a day? Probably a lot more (1)..... you did ten years ago. With a few pieces of equipment, we can 'talk' to people in more and more ways, not (2).....face-to-face and the phone, but also via the Internet. It's very important, therefore, (3).....everyone to try and improve their communication skills. Despite all the technological advantages of (4).....years, the art of good conversation is still at the heart of successful communication.(5).... it is a good idea to remember the four golden rules of good communication. Firstly, be as clear as you can. Misunderstandings arise if we don't say exactly (6)..... we mean. Secondly, we have to work (7)..... at listening. Pay attention to what the other person is saying. Thirdly, ask (8)..... people what they think, don't only tell them what you think. And finally show respect for people, give them time to say what they want, and (9)..... interest in what they say.

If you (10)..... this rules, you will be a good communicator.
