ANSWER SHEET 09 - 23

A secret of two cities

I: Dear readers, today we have invited Jane Baker, a famous writer. She has just come to our city after living in France. Jane, ¹ did you feel lonely in another country?

IB: Doubtless, I had some troubles without my family. However, I wasn't lonely at all thanks to my readers! Surprisingly, many french children know my books

I: Fascinating! So, now you are in London. ² Have you noticed any changes? ³ How do you feel about new features of your home? Lex.

IB: In general, London has changed a lot: there are new faces, magnificent buildings, unusual fashion... I miss my old native city a bit but I'm sure that it has become more industrious and beautiful ¹⁰⁰

I: Your fans told me that you were going to write a book about London. ⁴ Is it true?

IB: According to the plot, the action will take place both in our town and in France. Lex.

I: Fantastic! ^{15%} Why did you choose this country? ⁶ Were there any other variants?

IB: You may be surprised, no! There is one tiny secret connected with my home and Paris. Especially for you I'm ready to tell some details. My relative was a close friend of one great french designer. While visiting London ²⁰⁰ he was his guest! That is why my book will be about fashion, dreams and your own destination which is highly important for children nowadays.

I: What else?

IB: Love, of course. It's Paris!

I: Thank you, Jane. I wish you success! We are waiting for your book! ²⁴⁵
