ANSWER SHEET 09-29

An Interview with Jane Baker: The Mystery of the Green Lake

I: Today, I have the honor of conducting an interview with the famous author Jane Baker - Jane, thank you for coming.

JB: Of course! I'm very happy to be here.

I: My first question that I have is: what things were you inspired by to write living abroad?

JB: I left London and temporarily moved to the US to visit my family and get inspiration for my upcoming book. More specifically, I was in the state of Georgia, it was a very lovely experience.

I: That's great to hear. Actually, what is your upcoming book about?

JB: I can't say much yet, but it is a children's detective book set in my hometown called "The Mystery of the Green Lake".

I: Sounds very exciting! Are there any experiences that you were inspired by while thinking of a title?

JB: There were a couple, but the main inspiration was the ghost story I always heard as a kid. It said the lake just on the outskirts of the town was haunted by the ghost of a woman who drowned there the night before her wedding.

I: Sounds scary, any other details you'd like to share?

JB: Certainly! The legend was originated from the fact that there was once a venue where the lake is, but it was destroyed.

I: Anything else?

JB: The venue was built by a man named Jacob Green, thus the name.
I: Alright, thank you for your time!
