A Legend Of Our Town

I - Jane, we welcome you back. You have been away for a long time. What caused the decision to come back?

JB - You see I have been studying and working abroad for a long time, but life in the city is just not for me. I really wanted to return, and did as the first chance came.

Gr I - You have spent your childhood here. Was it something unique?

P JB - Of course it was! In this town me and my friends would constantly come up with stories and play as characters. Did you know that one of the trees from back then still have our names on them in the park?

Gr I - Wow! Do you notice any changes to our town?

Gr JB - It certainly became much prettier. The houses look new and the streets clean. But I still feel at home.

Gr I - We heard you are planning a book. What is it?

SP JB - Yes, I'm in the process of making a childrens book about our hometown. I want to raise interest in kids of our town!

I - What will it be about?

JB - There's a myth that our town was built by elves who vanished. The story will follow a sister and a brother going on an adventure to find elves in our town and befriend them.

SP I - Wow! That sounds really interesting. Thank you for asking our questions.

JB - I'm glad to be back. Thank you for having me.
