Answer me

The interview with Jane Baker

1. I: So, Jane, is your hometown still the same place as it was before you had left, or is it ~~now~~ completely unrecognisable now?

JB: To be honest, I would say "it hasn't changed much, if not for one thing. Recently, there has been an archeological expedition, during which some interesting artifacts have been found."

2. I: I'm intrigued. What have they found exactly?

JB: You won't believe it. Actually, they ~~dis~~ discovered many dinosaurs' bones!

3. I: I am shocked, to say the least, Jane. How did the residents react?

JB: Everyone was stunned! Nobody had ever thought that dinosaurs had lived there ^{too} at some point in history. Though I hope that the town's newfound fame will help me to sell the book I plan to write.

4. I: Wait, Jane, do you want to write a new book?

JB: Yes! In fact, I wanted to write something a long time ago, but I couldn't come up with ideas until now.

5. I: Could you give us an insight in your ongoing creative process, please?

JB: Well, I don't want to spoil too much of the story, but I can share some basic details. The main characters will explore my home-town, learn about the dinosaurs and see how different the life ^{was} was several billion years ago.

I: ~~That's~~ Thank you for your answers, Jane. We all are looking forward to your new book.
